

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of understanding the underlying mechanisms of the observed phenomena. It is crucial to identify the factors that influence the outcome and to develop a theoretical framework that can explain the results. This involves a thorough review of the existing literature and a careful analysis of the data. The second part of the paper presents the empirical findings, which are based on a large sample of observations. The results show that there is a significant positive relationship between the variables of interest, and this relationship is robust to various controls and specifications. The third part of the paper discusses the policy implications of the findings and suggests some ways in which the results can be used to inform decision-making. Finally, the paper concludes by summarizing the main findings and highlighting some areas for future research.

FACULTY . . . truly giving of himself . . .
pride in a unique department . . . Mr. Lazar.

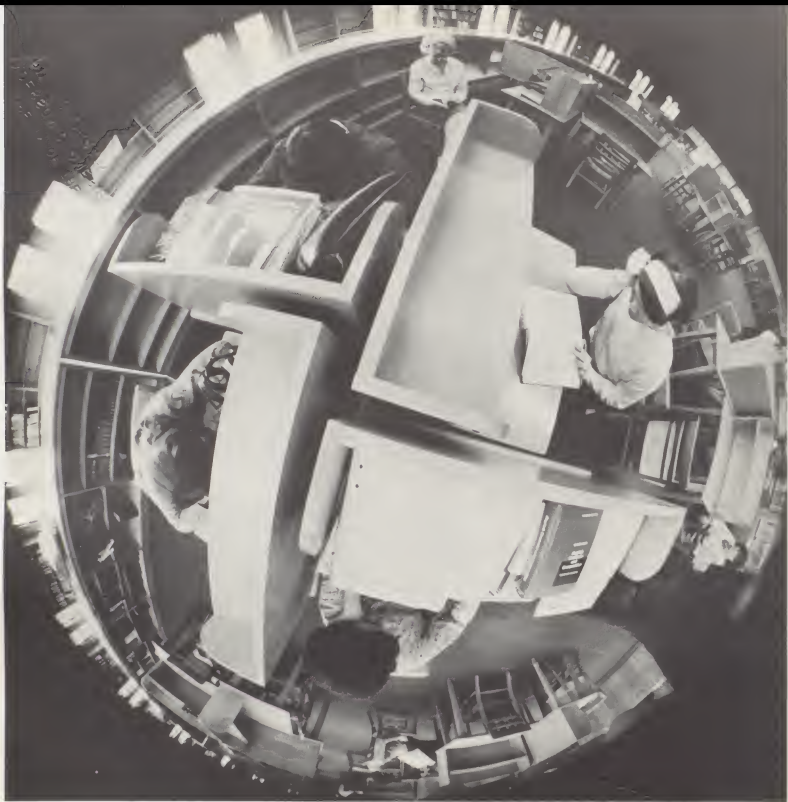

STUDENT . . . our first Sectional trophy . . .
Ron Walsnara, Ross Maroe, Mike Walsnara.

COMMUNITY . . . an avid fan . . . pride in a team . . . taco party . . . Mrs. Wainora.

I see a young school . . .
 Refusing to believe
 That recognition comes only with age.
 I see a FACULTY . . .
 Yielding the contagious—
 Their youth, knowledge, and support . . .
 Bringing a light to learning . . .
 This, the light of dedication.
 Freedom, flexibility . . .
 Employing every facility
 To unleash the students' potential.
 Pride in the student's success . . .
 A reflection of his accomplishment.
 I see a STUDENT . . .
 Extending himself beyond all limitations . . .
 Accepting a challenge to prove his strength.
 I see his pride . . .
 Forming an unwavering bond . . .
 Stemming from a desire within . . .
 Uniting all as one.
 I see a COMMUNITY . . .
 Unequaled in loyalty and support . . .
 Wholeheartedly boasting all school events . . .
 Acting as honorary alumni
 For a too young school.
 They envisioned a maturing greatness . . .
 For who could imagine . . .
 That a dream deemed so important
 Could reach such magnitude . . .
 In such a minute capsule of time.
 I see our reputation
 Steadily molded to prominence by
 The unique and unified Accomplishments of The FACULTY . . .
 The STUDENTS . . .
 The COMMUNITY . . .
 I see an image . . .
 Expressing the pride
 Of a person forever reaching out
 For that beam of success . . .
 Proving that . . .

HE IS PROUD;
AND YET,
HIS PRIDE BECOMES HIM.

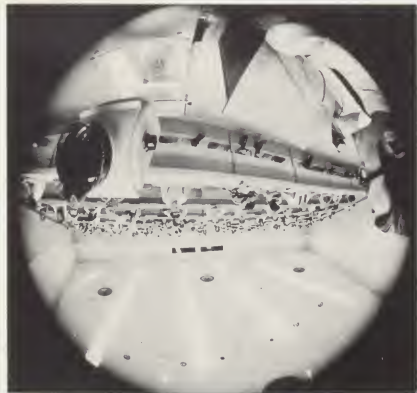

Above—UNUSUAL PERSPECTIVE . . . the solitude of learning in a modern Resource Center . . . "Independent Study" program . . . its merits proven. Right—OUR COMMONS . . . a group-study area . . . offering time to become aware of each other . . . time to listen to each other . . . a privilege appreciated . . . Tom Siemering, Jim Treder, Margorie Trent, Bob Nelson.

Learning: Computerized Mod System Initiated

September, 1968 . . .

Innovations continued to change our school's pace . . .

Last year's attractions:

A fieldhouse, science lab, and resource center . . .

Momentarily faded as "flexible scheduling" reigned . . .

The Commons and Lecture Halls were "testing grounds"

For student responsibility and directed study.

The debut of the modular system . . .

Fifteen thirty-minute periods each day . . .

More time for labs that demanded it . . .

Complaints of a full-day of resource . . .

New terminology . . .

"Mod" . . . "Res-Is-Lab" . . . "Flexible Scheduling" . . .

A sense of freedom initiated . . .

A feeling of maturity attained.

MHS Tradition:

Striving To Achieve New Distinction

I'm overwhelmed with a desire for new ideas . . .
 My actions now take on a significance . . .
 And I reflect on traditions I have fostered . . .
 A tattered, checkered flag
 Telling the tale of triumph in its wear . . .
 Reflecting the pride of two senior classes.
 A rusty, antique bell
 Transformed into a red and white wonder . . .
 Celebrating in sound our triumph . . .
 Mourning silently our defeat.
 Sectional Spirit Week . . .
 Ignited by class rivalry . . .
 Classes cheered . . . then masses . . .
 All were caught in a whirlwind of enthusiasm.
 My reflections envision the Northcote bridge . . .
 Its scars unseen under coats of red and white.
 I continue to recall the simple things . . .
 The fascination of class rings . . .
 Four years of my life embedded in cords . . .
 Senior Week . . .
 Its Prank Day and parties . . .
 A last look at friends.
 I helped build these few traditions . . .
 I leave them now to the future.

For Left—THE VICTORY BELL . . . presented by the Class of '68 . . . surrounded by Karen Mala, Marjorie Trent, Patty Speelman, Barb Jankura, Gail Burke, Debi Skelley.
 Left—SENIOR CORDS . . . a display of four years' achievement . . . Cheryl Hari, Ken Groaty, Ron Shlensky, Carol Sabek.
 Below—THE VICTORY FLAG . . . its accidental beginning . . . from a tablecloth to a meaningful tradition.

MHS Faculty:

For Upper Left—TEAHOUSE PROMOTION . . . Mr. Ed Burkhardt receiving a Chinese hat from Mr. John Toth . . . faculty joking. For Lower Left—BASKETBALL COACHES . . . Mr. Dick Hunt, Mr. Ed Robertson . . . humor in a dome of tense action. Left—CONVOCAION CUTIES . . . Mr. Ruben Vela, Mr. Tom Whitley, Mr. Ran Carson, Mr. Robert Speelman . . . a Paragon charus-line. Below—FACULTY GET-TOGETHERS . . . Mrs. Betsey Wilson, Miss Sherry Romine, Mrs. Lori Tribbett, Mr. Ruben Vela . . . spontaneous parties at Tribbett's.

Youthful Humor, Activities Accent School

Our faculty . . .
Stepping from a world of formality
To that of a student's youthful enthusiasm . . .
Academic prowess to be proven . . .
The supposed "classroom rigidity" softened
By a sense of humor necessary to survive.
A close-knit faculty
Impressing upon students ideals for perfection . . .
Leaving room for their views
In thought-provoking discussions.
Satisfaction fulfilled in teaching
As a once-distant barrier between faculty, student
Dissolves with a growing informality.
Faculty gatherings . . .
Their bowling league . . . a Sox park outing.
Spring vacation . . . ten days in the Bahamas
Soaking up the sun, scenery, excitement . . .
Adventures relayed in class discussions.
Post school-day sessions at The Town Club, Ben's . . .
The faculty lounge . . .
Their fun place to go
With coffee cups, birthday cakes, messages.
Our faculty . . . igniting our spirit of youth.

BONFIRE . . . setting ablaze a spirited school year.

Happenings: Explosion Of Youth's World

I'm in-tuned to the racing tempo of activity . . .
When all work seems completely beyond reach.
The float meetings . . . the pressured days . . .
Time disappearing as Homecoming approaches.
Football season in full swing . . .
The spirit of the game lingers on . . .
The crowd readies its after-game energies . . .
Taco eating at Fabulous Hot Dog . . .
A time when the giddy laughter . . .
Blends with talk of crazy ideas.
Basketball ushers in winter's excitement . . .
Games, often two, three a week . . .
Regionals . . .
The exciting months of Hoosier Hysteria end . . .
All good movies disappear . . .
The boredom, the "I can't stay home" feeling . . .
Burger King . . . a last resort.
Then . . .
Spring moves everything toward a revival . . .
Lengthy "Oliver" practices . . .
Prom anticipation gathering more momentum . . .
Commencement . . . the final fling at traditions.

TACOS . . . this year's craze . . . breaks the monotony of the usual after-game hamburger
. . . enjoyed by Debbie Sutter, Sandy Nelson.

FORMALS . . . an expensive evening . . . a taste of sophistication . . . lasting memories . . . Pam Elsner, Ross Maroe.

Juniors: Coveted Float Prize Captured By '70

PROM CONSTRUCTION HEADQUARTERS ... wood fashioned into a huge Tiki god, the most costly decoration ... early planning with a late start ... waiting for paper mache to dry ... orange paint being applied in haste ... a mad rush with few helping ... Craig Davidson, Gary Shumway, Terry Boudino, Mark Berey.

An explosion of Junior spirit ...
"Whip 'Em Up" ...
The huge mix master passing ... towering ...
The stance of a first-place float.
"Potpourri for a Mustang victory" ...
A collage of sectional posters ...
Navy blue and light blue flogging the Commons ...
A drumbeat accompanying an enthusiastic "Go, go, 7, 0."
"The Tombstone Blues" ... a class dance ...
Co-sponsoring the carnival ...
A means for financing the Prom ...
"Polynesian Paradise" ... the Prom's theme ...
To the school's disappointment ...
A request for a king and queen denied ...
Juniors drew a record crowd ...
An after-prom party at San Remos
With a fantastic soul band ... "The Enchanters."
A unified class hailed as the faculty's "favorite."

1969 PARAGON SPECIFICATIONS

The 1969 Paragon was printed by Paragon Press, Montgomery, Alabama. The original 10 column layout was developed by our staff for our own purposes and convenience. The Paragon has 2 pica inner margins with outer margins of 3,4,4,6 picas. The layout style for the Paragon focuses on a dominant picture per two-page spread with an effective use of white space. The Paragon was printed on 90 lb. paper, in a Calais (Dull) stock. Copy was set in 8 pt. Spartan Lite for captions; 10 pt. Spartan Lite for page labels; 12 pt. Spartan Lite for body copy; and 30 pt. Spartan Lite Upright for heads. The scoreboxes and cost blocks are in 20% grey screens with a 5 pt. 80% border. The border around the faculty and class picture panels are 2 pt. 100% lines. A 3 pt. 100% border was used around divider page pictures with a 5 pt. 100% border around the divider copy. The theme copy is in reverse on a 100% block. The copy blocks are flush left, ragged right with emphasis on informality.

A major portion of our photography was done by Walingers Studio of Chicago, Illinois. The pictures were made from 8 x 8 block and white glossies. The special effects in photography were achieved through the use of a fish eye lens, wide angle and super wide angle lenses. The 10, four-color pictures in the opening are a part of a Rainbow-Color plan offered exclusively by Paragon Press. The 3 four-color pictures in the closing are not included in the plan.

The cover was designed by S.K. Smith of Chicago, Illinois. The cover is in blue book cloth (AL 3-590) with lettering done in Green per 1969 Whiggen. The book is Smyth-sewn with headbands. The endsheets are color-coordinated with the cover.

EDITOR'S WIND-UP

As we come to the close of our 1969 yearbook, we feel a sense of satisfaction derived from surveying a work completed. This work represents a combined effort of our faculty, student body, and our community. Because we feel very strongly that there is a unique quality in Munster of everyone working together to achieve excellence, we have used this as the theme of our book. It is our hope that this book has captured and expressed this quality of Munster High School.

Answering questions such as "How is the yearbook doing? When will the book come out?—Experiencing a sudden popularity when accompanying a photographer around school—Scheduling pictures and overcoming the difficulties of getting the exact pose—Meeting people and learning how to get along with all types of individuals, these are some of the trials and rewards of being a yearbook editor. Sharing with us these trials and rewards were our conscientious, dedicated staff, and our adviser Mrs. Wilson. Their contributions to the yearbook production—cropping pictures, fitting headlines, writing copy—made possible a full, complete book.

We appreciate the staff members who forfeited their time to work on all-night and even all week-end—deadlines. We are most grateful to our adviser for her devotion, energy, and enthusiasm. She was a fellow worker, planner, and worrier from whom we learned a true sense of dedication.

Because you, the students of Munster High, are the real substance of this book, we hope it will be for you a meaningful remembrance of the lingering past—its enthusiasm, its failures, its apathy, its achievements. A review of a single year of an experience called life.

FACULTY

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of understanding the underlying mechanisms of the observed phenomena. It is crucial to identify the factors that influence the outcome and to develop a theoretical framework that can explain the results. This involves a thorough review of the existing literature and a careful analysis of the data. The second part of the paper presents the empirical findings, which are based on a large sample of observations. The results show that there is a significant positive relationship between the variables of interest, and this relationship is robust to various controls and specifications. The third part of the paper discusses the policy implications of the findings and suggests some ways in which the results can be used to inform decision-making. Finally, the paper concludes by summarizing the main findings and highlighting some areas for future research.
